colonial discussion and watch does CLAIMS OF POWERS not seem to have been settled. It is CLAIMS OF POWERS evident from what was said to-day in mission circles that the Senate's discussion of the Monroe Doctrine is not regarded as desirable at this time, the inference being that the point is an extremely delicate one.

Senate to Get No Light.

The President's decision, after many conferences with Col. House on the subject, not to give out the American suggestions for the league of nations, ulthough these have been framed carefully, but to wait until a plan is ogreed upon as the result of the present conferences, apparently precludes any possibility that the Senate will get light on the question now.

From guarded statements made to day it seems pretty clear that there is no specific mention of the Monroe to afford to America is provided by the league itself.

This explains the insistence by the President's friends here upon the con- Lorraine unconditionally and the right tention that the league of nations is to discuss ultimately to fix the French an extension of the Monroe Doctrine, frontiers in their relation to the Rhine, not an abandonment of it. But as which may require the creation of buffer there is no specific mention of spheres states.
